“Who shall be without hope as the Risen Christ shows us His Hands and His Side? [...] The scars are not only reminders that life is warfare, but they are also pledges of victory in that war. Our Blessed Lord said, ‘I have overcome the world.’ [...] Evil will never be stronger than it was on that particular day, for the worst thing evil can do is not to ruin cities and to wage wars and to drop atomic bombs against the good and the living. The worst thing that evil can do is to kill God. Having been defeated in that, in its strongest moment, when evil wore its greatest armor, it can never be victorious again.”

– Bishop Fulton Sheen
