“True, mother works in the home, but her quiet labor radiates upon the entire nation. [...] She builds up the future, and not merely the future of this earth; her task reaches out into eternity, to the very heart of God. Without her there can be no family, no home. Without her the strongest sources of human strength will disappear. Without her, goodness, love, and mercy vanish. She is the sturdy staff upon which the pilgrim supports himself as he plods the dusty road of life. [...] The hand that rocks the cradle holds the helm of the world. Everything that lives and dies on earth has its origin in mother.”

– Cardinal Mindszenty, The Mother
